```
#################################################################
ladd: Adds all elements of a list.
#################################################################
ladd := proc(l::list)

#-----------------------------------------------------------------
Define local variables.
#-----------------------------------------------------------------
   local  lsum, i:
#-----------------------------------------------------------------
Check for valid argument, exit with error message
if not valid.
#-----------------------------------------------------------------
   if nops(l) = 0 then ERROR(‘argument is the NULL list‘);
   fi;
#-----------------------------------------------------------------
Initialize sum to first element of list.
#-----------------------------------------------------------------
   lsum := l[1];
#-----------------------------------------------------------------
Loop over rest of elements accumulating the sum.
#-----------------------------------------------------------------
   for i from 2 to nops(l) do lsum := lsum + l[i];
   od;
#-----------------------------------------------------------------
Return the sum.
#-----------------------------------------------------------------
   lsum;
end:
```

```
#############################################################
ladd: Alternative, more compact implementation using
'add' procedure.  Not possible before Maple V.4.
#############################################################
laddnew := proc(l::list)
   local i;
   add( l[i], i=1..nops(l) );
end:
```